STOCKS

The stock market to-day was comparatively quiet, the sales only aggregating 290,-000 shares. During the morning the course of prices was very irregular, but after midday a strong tone set in, and prices began to advance, the market continuing strong on the advance to the close, when the highest quotations of the day were current in most cases. Northern Pacific shares were features of the final sales, and advanced sharply. Closing quotations for the general list showed the advance for the day 1 to 21 per cent. Lake Shore quoted an extra quart rly dividend of 2

Events of the week in financial circles were important for the strength displayed by securities generally on the stock

Money loaned at from 4 to 6 per cent. During the latter part of the week there were exceptional transactions at higher and lower rates.

Government bonds were firm and fractionally higher.

Foreign exchanges were firm throughout. Railway and miscellaneous speculation was buoyant early in the week, with an advance in active stocks extending from 2 to 7 per cent. The upward movement was assisted by large purchases for investment and speculative account, and by fa orable developments as regards telegraph companies. Subsequently there was a reaction from the highest point under sales to realize a profit,

CHICAGO MONEY.

CHICAGO, April 1.

The market to-day was very active, with a slight indication of weakness in the price of governments—or, rather, there there seems to be a check to the advance, 4 per cents ruling from 115½ to 115½. The demand for the extended 5's and 6's is less active, and prices for these securities are a shade lower.

COMMERCIAL.

Omana Wholesale Market Office of The Omaha Ber, Saturday Evening, April I.

The wholesale trade in all lines report the past week as active, particularly so in dry goods, carpets, boots and shoes, hats and caps, clothing, furnishing goods, and millinery, and quotable changes are unim-

There is a good movement in country produce. Sales of the more perishable articles being quite free on local account and a fa'r shipping inquiry also existed for some of the leading staples.

The butter market is weakening somewhat under heavier receipts, yet for hoice lots there is an active demand being almost of a local character, as it has been for some time past.

Poultry is still scarce and advancing. The supply of eggs still continue liberal and sales only moderate. Prices declin-

Strawberries are in the market and are selling at 50@60c, according to condition. Vegetables, both local and southern are in good supply, and agood trade being done. We noticed to-day green peas, cucumbers, tomatoes radishes, lettuce, kale and spin-

Oranges, lemons and bananas are in liberal supply, more active movement, and higher prices sustained. The flour market is still quiet, and prices remain unchanged, white an active demand exists for bran, and chopped feed at still higher figures. Grain receipts still continue good for the season, and higher prices have prevailed. The only changes reported in the mar-

(Communicateu.) At the citizens' meeting last Tuesday there was a committee appointed -three republicans and three democrats-to nominate a candidate for councilman from the First ward. The committee consisted of Paul Vandervoort, William Doll and C. F. Goodmore, D. Guild and Henry Siegelke, democrats. They met at 10 a. m. Wednesday, and agreed upon Ernest Stuht. During the afternoon pressure was brought by Dr. Miller and ceeded to the nomination of city others, including Frank Walters, to make no recommendation of Mr. Stuht. That night Paul Vandervoort, on behalf of the First ward committee, said they had no report to make. When asked why de did not committee be appointed to confer report he said; Let them go on with with the democratic convention as to the primaries, and then if the right the nomination of members of the man was not nominated by the demo-A recess of fifteen minutes was taken, Gen. His reply was, first, that Stuht reads THE BEE; sec ond, that five years ago he opposed Hitchcock and was a friend of Judge Briggs; lastly, he was objected to because that he, with other people west of Tenth street, favored the Eleventh street viaduct. Thereupon McGavock was endorsed by the citizens' meeting. I submit whether Vandervoort is just the kind of man to force candidates on the people of the First ward, to further certain ends he has in view, which will be ventilated presently. FIRST WARD TAX-PAYER
